EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.

A magnificent Pen Design, 18x27 inches of the lamented ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S IMMORTAL PROCLAMATION, executed by W. A. COLLINS of No. 17 Nassau St., New York, having been Photo-Lithographed by the celebrated Osborne Process, copies are now ready for sale and can be procured by application to the subscribers.

This work, irrespective of its great historic value, is the most superb piece of penmanship ever executed, and in itself is an ornament that should adorn every household.—No liberty-loving American should be without a copy. None can form an idea of its chasteness of design, beauty of execution, and completeness of detail, without examination. It has been pronounced by the most experienced connoisseurs as equal to the finest steel-plate engraving, and the fact of its having been executed with an ordinary steel pen and common writing ink is taken into consideration, it ranks as a marvel of patience, perseverence and art. Copies will be sent to any address in the union on receipt of $2.50 each.

R. P. WARING, Editor.

Taxes in North Carolina.

We find in the Raleigh SENTINEL, says the Norfolk JOURNAL of Tuesday the following table of the taxation of the Old North State:

The aggregate of the State debt on which the people are required to pay interest this year is about $35,000,000. The interest on this sum is $2,100,000. The expenses of the State government for the year are, and will be, at least $500,000, not a dollar less, probably much more; the county and city taxes of the entire State cannot fall under $500,000 more. We say nothing of school tax, as there are no common schools; yet there is to be a school tax, say of $200,000. Then the annual tax account of North Carolina will stand about thus:

Interest on State debt,	$2,100,000
Current State expenses,	500,000
Current town and county expenses,	500,000
School money,	200,000
	$3,300,000

In former years the people of North Carolina paid hardly any taxes; and granting that the State was somewhat behindhand in her internal improvement system, there has been no occasion to create such an enormous debt as the above to be annually paid by an impoverished people.

Who have done it? It is not the people of the State owning the property; for they would never have committed the folly of ruining themselves. It is the adventurers from other States in combination with the unprincipled natives, and working upon the passions of the ignorant negroes. These fellows have managed every interest of the State by "rings," and all the money goes through their hands. It is not to be wondered at that so many of them are making a "good thing" out of their positions.

It is true that self preservation will cause the people hereafter to come out to a man, without distinction of party, and turn out the stragglers from other States who have been fattening on their substance. But the unfortunate fact is that the mischief has been done, and the people of a noble State will have to pay the taxes to meet the interest of expenditures, many of which can never benefit them, and which have enriched only those who never had any permanent abode in the Commonwealth, or, if natives, could never have been elected to fill the smallest office.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Monday evening last witnessed another fatal accident, resulting in the almost instant death of a negro named General King.

The deceased was driving a mule near the Depot, having in his cart a barrel of meal, when the animal took fright and threw the negro out, the barrel falling upon his body. Assistance was immediately rendered by several gentlemen passing by, but death ensued in a few minutes.

An Inquest, under the direction of Mr. Ed. Zoeller, Special Coroner, was held over the body on Tuesday Morning and the following verdict rendered:

"That the said General King came to his death by accidentally falling out of the cart, by action of the mule and the accidentally breaking of a string which had been holding the body of the cart to the shalves."

Tarboro Southerner.

Mr. Beecher raises some of the finest crops of wheat in the country, but the unfavorable difference between the cost of producing it and its market value after it is produced has interfered considerably with its success as a commercial enterprise. His special weakness is hogs, however. He considers hogs the best game a farm produces. He buys the original pig for a dollar and a half, and feeds him $40 worth of corn, and then sells him for $9. This is the only crop he ever makes any money on. He loses on the corn, but he makes $7.50 on the hog. He does not mind this, because he never expects to make anything on corn anyway. And anyway it turns out he has the excitement of raising the hog anyhow, whether he gets the worth of him or not. His strawberries would be a comfortable success if the robins would eat turnips, but they won't, and hence the difficulty.

Mark Twain.

Madame Poulard, a wealthy lady of Paris, France, was recently sent to prison for six months, all for the simple amusement of now and then stealing a small sum of money, a species of pleasantry to which she seems very much addicted.

CURIOSITY.—The Dunkirk Journal says that a curious individual was greatly perplexed at the opening of the Masonic rooms, the other night, to understand the whys and wherefores of the three large candles which had conspicuous positions. He viewed them on all sides, thoughtfully summing up in his mind their probable use. At last his patience was exhausted, and turning suddenly about, he made bold to ask a Mason "What those candles were for." The Mason, looking about him to see that no one was near, and exacting the most solemn promises of secresy, got close up to the ear of his friend, and with bated breath whispered, "The candles are to burn." The curious man hasn't told any person about it, but somehow such things will leak out.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER ARRESTED.—A colored boy, barefooted and clad in ordinary garb, bought a ticket at the Raleigh Station, on Thursday morning by the "fast freight" train, for Salisbury. He had in his possession "a large roll of money" it was stated, much more than a boy of his dress and appearance was likely to have come honestly by. He was not taken up here, however, but on his arrival in Salisbury, was arrested, and the Mayor of that city telegraphed the fact to Mayor Harrison, of Raleigh. He gives his name there as Wallace. We have heard of no one here losing as large a sum of money as he is represented to have had. Perhaps the boy was from some other point, and this paragraph may lead to more light in regard to him.

At Nahunta, a Station on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, on Tuesday night last about 12 o'clock, the stables of Mr. W. W. Barnes, were burned to the ground, burning to death one negro boy and badly scorching another. There are strong suspicions that the fire was the result of grudge that existed among some against Mr. Barnes, on account of some past difficulty.

Three negroes, who were so nearly white that they bought their tickets and passed the door-keeper without being noticed, entered the dress circle of the National Theatre, in Washington, last evening. They were detected, however, when seated in the warm atmosphere of the room, and were put out. Now they intend to bring the case before the courts and test the social equality ordinance recently passed by the Washington Council.—Phœnix.

Howard Paul recently announced that he would deliver a five minutes red hot lecture on "Women's Rights" in Preston, England; but the printer set it up "Women's Tights," which caused considerable scandal.

A surgeon who was in the navy was in the habit of prescribing salt water for sailors. While angling upon a fine day he happened to fall overboard. The captain, who was at the time walking the deck, heard the splash, and inquired of a sailor near him what it was. "Nothing, your honor," replied Jack, "only the surgeon tumbled into his medicine chest."

A baggage master at Cleveland, while enjoying himself jamming up trunks, had a hole bored in his leg by a gun in one of the trunks he had tossed overboard. They handle baggage mighty careful there now.

The Richmond Whig says: A large secret society of colored voters, bound together by an oath that they will vote for no one for office except colored men, is, we hear, in existence in this city, and its membership is rapidly increasing.

A drawback to the pleasures of sport in France is the heavy octroi duty which a successful shot has to pay upon every head of game he takes back to town. If a country friend invites a townsman to come for a few day's shooting, and sends him home with the customary well-stocked hamper, the townsman, on reaching the barriers of this city, has to pay as follows: For a pheasant 3 francs 50 centimes to 4f. (according to weight); for a hare, 1 franc 50 centimes to 2 francs; for a rabbit 75 centimes to 1 franc 25 centimes; for a partridge, 75 centimes to 1 franc 50 centimes; for venison, 40 centimes the pound; and for every species of feathered game not already mentioned, 18 centimes the kilogramme. A good deal of smuggling is done by sportsmen, who conceal partridges in their pockets; and by peasants, who hide game in cart-loads of hay; but the octroi officials are very sharp.

NEW YORK STATE ELECTIONS.—The New York State elections occurs on the 2d of November for a Secretary of State, Legislature, &c. In 1867 the Republicans polled 325,099 votes for Secretary of State against 373,029 Democratic. In the Governor's vote in 1868 Hoffman had 27,946 majority over Griswold, Fenton was elected by 13,789 majority over Hoffman. Lincoln had 6,749 majority in 1854 and 50,136 in 1860. Seymour had 10,000 majority in 1868. These are the immediate records with which the parties join issue again.

A few days ago, a colored man near Yanceyville, while fallowing land, stopped his plow to molest a hornet's nest—one of the enraged insects made at him and stung him in the temple, probably penetrating an artery. The poor fellow gave up the attack and laid himself down in the corner of a fence and in an half hour he was a dead man. The Milton Chronicle is responsible for the above statement.

KILLED.—We learn that yesterday morning, as the freight train on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, was approaching Rocky Mount, one of the train hands, while in the act of getting on the top of a freight car, lost his hold, fell on the track, the train passing over his body, killing him instantly.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Mrs. Bridget Werbeek threw herself from the fifth story of a tenement house in New York, and was killed on the spot. Reports derogatory to her character are said to be the cause.

A rumor was current here this morning (6th) that a duel was pending between Colonel John S. Mosby, of Virginia, and Colonel Boyd, of the army, who is on duty at Warrenton. Boyd is the challeged party, and, it is said, promptly accepted. The affair grew out of a personal indignity offered to Mosby.—Baltimore Sun.

We learn that Col. Folk, while on the Blue Ridge Mountains, between Boone and Jefferson, was shot at by three men secreted at the side of the road. He was riding in a buggy, and the horse, taking fright at the firing, ran off, threw the Col. out and severely injured him in the head. No clue could be had of the would-be murderers.—Ashville News.

The Cincinnati Commercial (Radical) says that "Nat. Turner's insurrection" in Southampton county, Va., in 1831 or 1832, "ought to have succeeded," and if it had, "his monument to-day would not be unfinished as Washington's is." Nat. Turner's insurrection, it will be remembered, brief as it was, resulted in killing men, women and children, and contemplated the murder of every white person in the country. This is a specimen.—Alex. Gazette.

His High Mightiness the President has intimated that there will be no obstacle to the admission of Virginia provided old issues are dropped and that he has no preference for Senators but the persons chosen must be able to take the test-oath. Imagine such declarations coming from Washington, Jefferson, or any other of the earlier Presidents of the Republic! In the first place those patriotic Executives had too much respect for the republican theory of government which they had labored to establish to speak in that manner, and, in the second place, the people would have laughed at them had they done so. Washington (D. C.) Intellrigencer and Express,

HOW TO PLACE YOUR BEDS.—A physician, writing to a Dublin medical paper, advises that beds should be placed with the head to the North. The electric currents passing around the earth affects the nervous system, and sleeping with the head to the North, the effect on the system is more beneficial than in any other position. He tried the experiment with sick persons, and with the most satisfactory results. Those who have beds should try it; those who have not can sleep with their own heads to the North; perhaps it will do just as well.

The foolishness of the African City Council, Washington, will leave that city without theatres. They are attempting to compel managers to admit the odorous individuals to the parqueete and circles; but there are portions of the house assigned for them, and, unless they occupy these without further disturbance, every manager in Washington will close his theatre.

Lucy Stone said a good thing in the Woman's Convention at Chicago, to wit: "Some mean coward says if women vote they should fight. Now, she would ask, who perils her life when the soldier is born? The mother is his quartermaster until he is capable of finding his own rations."

A countryman, walking along the streets of a town, found his progress stopped by a close barricade of timber.

"What is that for? he inquired of a person in the street.

"Oh, that's to stop the cholera."

"Ah? I have often heard of the board of health, but never saw it before."

As a lady in Franklin county, Indiana, eighty-five years old, was attempting to remove a box of honey from a hive on Friday last, she was stung near the temple by a bee, and died in less than ten minutes.

Cranberries are so abundant in Wisconsin that they are selling at two dollars a bushel.

There was an earthquake in California on Saturday.

What It Is Not And What It Is.—These truths are self-evident. PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR is neither sticky like molasses, nor muddy like a gutter puddle. It is on the contrary a genial fluid, clear, limpid, aromatic, harmless, and will restore to gray hair whiskers, beards and mustaches, their original color as certainly as sunshine melts the snow.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Keep the Body in Good Repair.

It is much easier to keep the system in good condition than to restore it to that condition when shattered by disease. The "House of Life," like other houses, should be promptly propped up and sustained whenever it shows any sign of giving way. The first sympton of physical debility should be taken as a hint that a stimulant is required. The next question is, "What shall the stimulant be?"

A wholesome vegetable tonic, the stimulating properties of which are modified by the juices and extracts of anti-febri'e and laxative roots and herbs,—something which will regulate, soothe and purify, as well as invigorate,—is the medicine required by the debilitated. There are many preparations which are claimed to be of this description, but HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the great vegetable preventive and restorative that has won its way to the confidence of the public and the medical profession by a quarter of a century of unvarying success, stands pre-eminent among them all. To expatiate on its popularity would be to repeat a twice-told tale. It is only necessary to consult the records of the United States Revenue Department to learn that its consumption is greater than that of any other proprietary remedy of either native or foreign origin.

As a mean of sustaining the health and strength under a fiery temperature, the BITTERS have a paramount claim to consideration. It has the effect of fortifying and bracing the nervous and muscular systems against the ordinary consequences of sudden and violent changes of temperature, and is therefore peculiarly useful at this season, when hot sunshine by day, and ice-cold dews by night, alternately heat and chill the blood of those who are exposed to them.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are sold in bottles only. To avoid being deceived by counterfeits, see that the name of the article is on the label, and embossed on the glass of the bottles, and our revenue stamp over the cork.

New Advertisements.

The following new advertisements appear in this morning's issue for the first time.

Oysters—Thomas McCrady, Charleston, S. C.

CHARLESTON OYSTERS.—An enterpr'sing Charlestonian has undertaken to put these delicious bivalves within the reach of the benighted people of the interior, and the first class names to which he refers are a guarantee that he is all right. See advertisement.

Why is not the following sensible rule always adhered to? "If a gentleman and lady are walking together, she should always be at his right arm, whether it be towards the inside or outside of the walk; thus the lady will avoid being pushed and annoyed by passers-by. Always turn to your right when passing a person or persons on the street."

"This world is all a fleeting show," said a sheriff to a culprit on the gallows." "Yes," was the prompt reply, "but if you have no objection, I'd rather see the show a little longer."

The Hebrews and Quakers, says the New York Times, have the most systematic arrangements for relieving their poor. Every Jewish synagogue has a committee of the most respectable members, whose business it is to become acquainted with the condition of every Hebrew in their district, and, if necessary, to afford assistance. The aged are pensioned, and the disabled placed in hospitals, or furnished with regular relief. As a result the genuine broadbrim and Judaic nose is never seen at the world's back door begging cold victuals.

Seventy-five colleges have conferred this season, according to the Yale Courant, 1,708 degrees in course and 272 honorary. The latter includes 88 D. D.'s and 64 LL D's.

A patent was issued last week to Asa Snyder, of Richmond, for a fire-place.

A man and woman arrived at a hotel in Cincinnati, and asked if they had any "marrying facilities" about the house.—they were soon spliced, when the man told the clerk to change the register, and put them into one room, with first rate sleeping utensils, as they were both mighty sleepy.

The lady who rejected the offer of a gentleman who had been previously rejected by some one else; and who said to him she "wouldn't be pudding if she couldn't be pie," (which is an authentic instance;) at least knew how to be tart.

It is expected that somo two hundred delegates from Europe, including Professors Dorner and Tholuck, will visit this country a year from this fall, to attend the meeting of the General Alliance, in New York.—Professor Schaff seems to be very successful in awakening interest on the subject in Germany.

STOPPING A NEWSPAPER.—An exchange has the following allegory, which we commend to careful consideration: "A certain man hit his toe against a pebble, and fell headlong to the ground. He was vexed, and under the influence af anger and self-sufficiency, he kicked mother earth right saucily. With imperturbable gravity, he looked to see the earth itself dissolve and come to naught. But the earth remained, and only his poor foot was injured in the encounter. This is the way of man. An article in a newspaper touches him in a weak spot, and forthwith he sends to stop his paper. With great complacency he looks to see the crash, when he finds he only hits his own toe against a world that does not perceptibly feel the shock, and injures no one but himself.

FINANCE MADE EASY.—Sam, who is an unusually intelligent contraband, proposes to induct his simple crony Cuff into the mysteries of Wall street in six easy lessons. Here is the first:

Sam—Suppose you buy ten millions of gold——

Cuff—Not ten million dollars you don't mean——

Sam—O, dry up! You don't know nothing, and won't keep still while I teach you. Suppose you buy ten million of gold at 150 to 160, and sell as much at 140 to 150, how much do you make?

Cuff—How can I tell? I never heard of so much money. But I should think I'd be a heap out of pocket.

Sam—That's just your foolishness. Now learn something. You just don't take the ten millions you bought, settle with the other fellows at ten per cent, and have one million clear gain.

Cuff—(submissively)—You are right, Sam! This nigger don't know nothing. I never could have ciphered that out!—N. Y. Tribune.

In Wheeling, West Virginia, the other day, an artist brought his camera to bear on a well known toper lying on the sidewalk, and soon had him on exhibition in all the show windows. The old reprobate, on returning to consciousness, signed the pledge.

Minnessota is overrun by beggars mostly from Europe, who cannot even ask alms in English, but make known their wants by pantomine.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Dangerous counterfeit $10 Greenbacks are in circulation.

Overcoats have already become a necessity in Detroit.

Nevada announces that no snow has yet appeared on the mountain peaks there.

The New Catholic Cathedral in New York will seat nineteen thousand persons.

A drink in San Francisco costs twenty-five cents in coin, whether lager or champagne.

Massachusetts has 40,000 more women than men, and wants to know what she shall do with them.

At a recent funeral in Ceylon of an officer, the young widow buried her head in the earth, and cut off her beautiful golden hair and placed it in the grave.

Five skeletons of aboriginies were exhumed on the Cazenovia and Canastota railroad excavation a few days ago, one of them measuring over eleven feet in length.

During the past four weeks there have been one hundred and fifteen deaths in the city of Charleston—twenty-nine whites.

The three prisoners who escaped from the South Carolina Penitentiary, on Sunday night last, have been arrested, and lodged in the Winnsboro' jail.

A volunteer company in Boston have adopted the name of Peabody Guards.

The first Locomotive ever used in America, the John Bull, is still kept as a curiosity in a building near Albany.

A man has just been liberated from the Michigan State Prison, after a two years' sojourn there, who was innocent of the crime for which he was sentenced. He was charged with stealing, and in order to save the reward to his family he confessed what he had never done,

Among the presents given to the Duke of Edinburg at Hawaii were 750 fowls of different kinds, 160 pigs, and a ton of sweet potatoes.

Gen. McClellan's last bulletin reports a son.

A superlatively Caucasian audience in the California Theatre, San Francisco, stopped the performance the other night to hiss and hoot out of the theatre a couple of Chinamen who occupied one of the balcony boxes.

John D. Culver, a broker of St. Catharine's, Canada, absconded on Saturday night, taking with him $20,000 or $25,000. Several banks are sufferers, as well as a number of business men.

Catharine T. Washington, the nearest relative of the first President of the United States, died a few days since at the residence of her son-in-law at Delhi, Ohio. She was born on the 25th of August, 1790.

A Michigan paper says that a settler in Sanbac county came home and found his only child strangled in its cradle by a snake, struck his wife a fatal blow, and rushed out of the house a raving maniac.

The merchants of Louisville, Ky., have contributed $70,000 toward defraying the expenses of the convention which meets in that city on the 12th inst.

Truth is one of the rarest gems.—Many a youth has been lost in society by allowing it to tarnish his character and foolishly throwing it away.

It is now published as a fact that the vignettes on the new ten and fifteen cents stamps are pictures of two notorious Washington courtezans.

RICHMOND, Oct. 8.—Both Houses of the Legislature to-day ratified the 14th and 15th Amendments. In the House there were only six votes against them, and in the Senate only four against the 14th and two against the 15th, one of the latter being a colored Republican Senator, who declined voting because the Legislature is illegal.

The Legislature, by joint resolution, then adjourned till October 18th.

In the House an amendment to the bill passing the 15th Amendment, making it take effect on and after the admission of the State to the Union, only received five votes.

In the same body a resolution was offered that in view of the doubts expressed about the legality of this Legislature, it will, after admission to the Union, re-enact the 14th and 15th Amendments. The resolution was referred.

NOTICE.—

We hereby notify the public that, from and after this date, we employ no agents for the sale of

Gregory's Dyspeptic Mixture,

Neither are there any interested parties with us. We are the inventors, sole proprietors, and only manufacturers of the GENUINE ARTICLE, and our individual signatures accompany each bottle—and all orders and remittances must be made to Drs. W. W. & R. K. GREGORY, at Charlotte, N. C.

In assuming the entire charge of this invaluable remedy, we present it to you in a new dress, and have reduced the price to $1 50 per bottle, to bring it within the reach of all. In the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle will be seen the certificates of the most distinguished physicians, judges and divines, in the State, and we only ask for it a trial, that dyspeptics may be convinced of its curative virtues.

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

PARLOR HEATERS,

COOKING STOVES,

COOKING RANGES,

HOT-AIR FURNACES, &c.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage. S. B. SEXTON & CO.,

LAND FOR SALE.—I offer for sale my Plantation in Mecklenburg county, lying on the waters of Long Creek, containing about 300 acres, one half cleared, the other in native forest—oak, hickory and pine. The open land is fertile and adapted to the cultivation of the cereals and cotton, 50 acres fresh land particularly so. The whole track is well watered and enclosed with a good fence. The improvements are comfortable and situated on a healthy high ridge in sight of Catawba river and in an excellent neighborhood.

For terms, apply to Dr. W. MORRISON, owner of the place, or to R. P. WARING, Esq. Editor of the TIMES and NEWS, Charlotte.
